TESTIMONIALS

“Dr. Parisi is very kind, patient, and non-judgmental. He is helping me slog through my problems. I have had work, family, and financial issues culminating in some life altering events (unemployment, foreclosure, bankruptcy, loss of health insurance, illness) that have overwhelmed me and paralyzed me with anxiety and depression. Dr. Parisi has been supportive and helpful as he has worked with me in adjusting to my new situation. He has also been very kind in helping me throughout the time I’ve had extreme financial problems. The Mt. Prospect offices are pleasant and have free, close-in parking, some of which is covered, which is very nice in inclement weather. Everything is accessible for a person who uses a cane, as I do. When I bump into other providers at the offices, they all are very friendly and professional, too.” -ChiGal, July 7, 2013

A person is walking a dog on a paved path that winds through a wooded area. The path is made of asphalt and is flanked by green grass and trees. The person is wearing a dark jacket and pants, and the dog is a medium-sized, light-colored breed. The scene is captured from a low angle, looking down the path towards the person and dog. The lighting is soft, suggesting an overcast day or late afternoon. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.

“Dr. Parisi’s practice has been a godsend to me. I had been going through some rough physical times and emotionally was all over the place. Dr. Parisi is very kind and calm and I felt at ease right away (the office is very inviting as well)!”

I was diagnosed with anxiety (and a mild anxiety disorder) and Dr. Parisi was right on the mark with the perfect combination of medication, cognitive-behavioral therapy and healthful living tips. I feel more like my old self: calm, relaxed, level-headed, and the list goes on and on! If you are searching for a good [psychologist] that will get your head right with whatever you are struggling with, Dr. Parisi is your man! He is the best and I highly recommend him!”-Barbara S, April 30, 2013.
